- Any extra-curricular activities such as private music lessons, trips, School transport service and visits in which you agree your child may participate shall be deemed to be supplemental to items met by the Fees and charged for accordingly.
- All public examination charges and any additional charges incurred by the School in providing for the special educational needs of your child shall be charged as supplemental to the Fees.
- The persons who have signed the Registration Form remain liable to the School for the whole of the Fees and supplemental charges due, unless the School has agreed in writing to look exclusively to any other person for payment of the Fees or any part of them.
- Each invoice must be paid in one of three ways; either in full for the Term, before or by the following dates: Autumn Term - 31st August; Spring Term - 31st December; Summer Term - 30th April.

g) We reserve the right to refuse to allow your child to attend the School or to withhold any references while Fees or supplemental charges remain unpaid. The rate of interest charged will be 3% per month accruing on a daily basis which represents a genuine pre-estimate of the cost to the School of a default. The Parents shall also be liable to pay all costs, Fees, disbursements and charges, including legal fees and costs reasonably incurred by the School, in the recovery of any unpaid Fees regardless of the value of the School's claim.

h) You consent to our informing any other school or educational establishment to which you propose to send your child of any outstanding Fees and consent (if necessary) to the Credit Control Department of Alpha Schools carrying out a search (at any time) with a credit reference agency, which will keep a record of that search and may share that information with other businesses.

j) Fees and any prepaid supplemental charges will not normally be reduced as a result of absence due to illness or otherwise.

k) Failure to attend the School after registration for a place at the School will result in the payment of a Term's Fees if a full Term's Notice has not been given in writing.

3. Notice Requirements

If you wish to withdraw your child from the School (other than the Normal Leaving Date); you shall either give a term's notice to that effect or shall pay to the School a Term's Fees in lieu of such notice, at such rate as would have been charged for the final Term of provision if a Term's Notice had been given.

a) Fees in lieu of Notice means Fees in full for the Term of Notice at the rate that would have applied had the pupil attended and not limited to the parental contribution in the case of a scholarship, exhibition, bursary or other award or concession.

b) A Term's Notice must be given in writing if the parents wish to cancel a place for which they have registered, or if parents wish to withdraw a pupil who has entered the School.

c) You acknowledge that the School's affairs are organised on a Termly basis and that it is not possible for you to reduce the amount of Fees due or to obtain a refund of Fees by withdrawing your child part-way through a Term.

- In this Contract "force majeure" shall mean any cause beyond a party's control (including, for the avoidance of doubt, acts of God, war, riot, civil commotion, compliance with any law or governmental order, rule, regulation or direction (including that of a local authority), accident, fire, flood, storm, pandemic or epidemic of any disease, terrorist attack, chemical or biological contamination).
- In the event of a force majeure arising which prevents or delays the School's performance of any of its obligations under this agreement, the School shall forthwith give notice of the extent of any closure due to the force majeure. Provided that the School has acted reasonably and prudently to prevent and/or minimise the effect of the force majeure and subject to clause 4(c), the School will have no liability in respect of the non-performance of such of its obligations as are prevented or delayed during the continuance of the force majeure. The School shall endeavour during the continuance of the force majeure to provide educational services (including by providing appropriate educational services remotely).
- Subject to Clause 4 (b), if the School is prevented from performance of all of its obligations as a result of force majeure for a continuous period greater than two school terms, then you have the right to leave without giving a full terms notice and incurring fees in lieu of notice.

of the Head and of other members of staff on the Head's behalf to take all reasonable disciplinary or preventative action necessary to safeguard and promote the welfare of each pupil and the School community as a whole. The School's disciplinary policy which is current at the time applies to all Pupils when they are on School premises, or in the care of the School, or wearing School uniform, or otherwise representing or associated with the School.

b) The Head may use their discretion to require you to remove or may suspend or expel your child from the School if (he/she) considers that your child's attendance, progress or behaviour is unsatisfactory and, in the reasonable opinion of the Head, the removal is in the School's best interests or those of your child or other children.

c) The Head may in (his/her) discretion require you to remove or may suspend or expel your child if the behaviour of you or either of you is in the opinion of the Head unreasonable and affects or is likely to affect adversely the child's or other children's progress at the School or the well-being of School staff or to bring the School into disrepute.

d) Should the Head exercise (his/her) right, you shall not be entitled to any refund or remission of Fees or supplemental charges paid or due and the Deposit is forfeited. However, in such circumstances Fees in lieu will not be payable.

e) Examples of offences likely to be punishable by suspension or expulsion are presented in the School Behaviour Policy, they are not exhaustive, and in particular the Head may decide that suspension or expulsion for a lesser offence is justified where there has been previous misbehaviour. The review of serious disciplinary matters is governed by the School Complaints Procedure

f) Parents may ask for a Governors' Review of a decision to expel or require the removal of the pupil from the School (but not a decision to temporarily exclude the pupil unless the Temporary Exclusion is for 11 School days or more, or would prevent the pupil taking a public examination). The request must be made as soon as possible and in any event within seven days of the decision being notified to the parents. Parents will be entitled to know the names of the Governors who make up the Review Panel and may ask for the appointment of an independent panel member nominated by the School and approved by the parent (approval not to be unreasonably withheld).

7. The School's Complaints Procedure

Any question, concern or complaint about the pastoral care or safety of a pupil must be notified to the School as soon as practicable. A copy of the School's Complaints Policy can be found on the School website. If a complaint/concern is the motivating reason for notice of withdrawal then this complaint must be raised in writing on or before the formal date of notice otherwise the Complaints Procedure may not apply, in particular where there are disputes relating to Fees owed or Fees in Lieu of Notice.

8. The School's Obligations

- Subject to these Terms and Conditions, the School undertakes to accept your child as a pupil of the School from the time of joining the School until the end of their schooling.

a) The Parents authorise the Head to override their own and (so far as they are entitled to do so) the Pupil's rights of confidentiality, and to impart confidential information on a "need-to-know" basis where necessary to safeguard or promote the pupil's welfare or to avert a perceived risk of serious harm to the pupil or to another person at the School. In some cases, teachers and other employees of the School may need to be informed of any particular vulnerability the pupil may have.
b) You consent to our supplying information and a reference in respect of your child to any educational institution, which you propose your child may attend. Any reference supplied by us will be confidential. We will take care to ensure that all information that is supplied relating to your child is accurate and any opinion given on their ability, aptitude for certain courses and character is fair. However, we cannot be liable for any loss you are or your child is alleged to have suffered resulting from a reference given by us.
c) You consent to us making use of information relating to your child whilst he or she is at the School and after he or she has left for the purposes of communicating and managing relationships with Pupils and former Pupils of the School.

12. Intellectual Property Rights
